CELEBRATED ARTIST SHARES "CONNECTING WITH EACH OTHER": HONOR, STRENGTH, RESPECT, FAITH, VIRTUE, AND DESTINY. (7/17/2001)

The contemporary idea came to her when she was reading an e-mail from a dear friend who lives abroad. Global communication is at our fingertips as we identify with each other through characteristics of honor, strength, respect, faith, virtue and destiny; without the differences of religion, culture, or environment. Her purpose is to connect with others without the element of judgement.

By observing nature, Nancy Vinzant LaMay focuses on bold color and shape. Her art reflects an emotion of personal experiences of life. A splash of passion, intellect and soul is left upon the canvas with the creation of each new painting. Her style was inspired by the Impressionist desire to transform God's natural beauty onto canvases. Nancy's paintings tend to have a rich texture of heavy impasto: capturing the viewer inwardly to the moment of awareness with the absolute scene; becoming apart of the image with mood and space. Nancy Vinzant LaMay began a painting career after years of teaching, observation and studying the arts.

Her work can be found in permanent university collections, California Galleries and has been exhibited in regional shows and galleries.
